"BABES IN TOYLAND" WELL RECEIVED

A large and appreciative audience viewed the Children's Dance Theater's version of "Babes in Toyland" under the direction of Susan Farrar, presented last week.

The leads, Tom, the Piper's Son (Jim Lowe), and Mary Quite Contrary (Betsy Smith), performed with just the right touch of old time drama keeping it light and amusing to watch. The Villian Barnaby (Scott Wight), was played with assurance and finesse. His cohorts, Rodrigo and Gonzorgo (Paula Belanger and Lori Thayer), took one back to the old time slapstick movie days. Little Bo Peep (Beth deFrees), Jackie-Nimble (Jessica Dolven), Wee Willie Winkle (Eva Blake), and "Babes" kept the story sparkling from start to finish.

Mother Goose (Kathryn Haskell), had her brood intact and under control at all times in the Village Square—the young dancers all performing with grace and assurance. The Children in the Shoe and the Muddy Puddles were a highlight. The serio-comedic Castle in Spain tangued by Barnaby and Mary with the struggling Tom who has been captured by the Goons looking on was cleverly performed.

The very colorful Gypsy scene as portrayed by the Teen Dancers showed the Goons selling Tom to the Gypsies only to be outwitted by Floretta the Fortune Teller vigorously played by Debby Buck.

The Forest Scene opened with the beautiful interpretive ballet "Prayer at Dawn." Lighting effects produced by Frank and Carol Fiske who were responsible for the entire production.

Cheri Snyder, Karen Sauret and Scott Wight deserved special mention in their portrayal of the "Pas de Trois", a most professional performance.

The Sprites in an intricate acrobatic jazz, danced to the music of Bach with Jacques Lousier were excellent. The scene climaxed with the Forest Monsters frightening the Babes, Jack and Jill, Miss Muffet, and Little Bo Peep, until Tom and Mary and Mother Goose came to the rescue.

The Toyshop with Grunio, the Inventor (Andy Smith), and Toymaker (John Clukey) was a highlight of the evening. The Dolls in the Toyshop who were between ages of three to six, kept the audience amused with their unexpected antics. All deserve a star on their dressing room door.

The Duel between Tom and Barnaby assisted by the Battle of the Toys finished off the program with a bang.

Trophies were awarded graduating students, Kathryn Haskell, who will be attending Brandeis next fall, and Kathy Chapman, who will be doing to the U. of M. Portland Gorham

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

Friday, June 21, the Town Office will be closed part of the day as we have been told to be in Lewiston to receive instruction on the distribution of Food Stamps. We do not know if stamps will be issued then or if we will receive them later.

The Water District is reading their meters for the July billing. The sewer bills will have to be adjusted using the annual average water usage as a basis. The bills will be mailed a week or two later than usual as it will take extra time to recompute them.

We have not received an official layout of the Danny Long Road. It is our understanding the County Commissioners have had some surveying done in preparation of drawing one up. It will be interesting to compare the new survey with an old one accepted by the town many years ago. Our research indicates the two will be in different locations as they cross the Holt field. We have been informed by the Commissioners they were going to instruct their surveyor to simply follow a road which has serviced the area in question. They will establish a right of way 1 1/2 rods on each side of the present center line of the road.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Collette Morgan, Correspondent —

There is a small meadow region to which I go each year. It has been run over for a long time. It is a ragged looking plot but every time I go I spend time just looking and looking. I always find something new.

Between annual mowing it had no care; daisies, asters, goldenrod multiplied so of course the grass diminished. It lies at the foot of a wooded hillside. Small brooks seep and drain through a culvert under the road where there is a larger brook. Here at the bridge I picked a small branch of a bush near by. Its flowers were flat and white and the branch bright purplish-red; red asier, I presume.

Brush from the timbered hillside has crept down each year; a wild moose tightening. A few more years and there will be no grass left; man's signature will have vanished.

Ruth and I went beyond this and noticed such wildlings as blueets, yellow sorrel, cinquefoil, and viol-yellow sorrel, cinquefoil, and viol-lets.

From a distance the tiny Quaker ladies look like frost on the ground; there are so many of them. If you look closely, you will notice a pale lilac tinge, the nearest thing to blue, despite their common name, Blueet. We stopped to enjoy the perfume of the wayfaring bushes and trees.

Following an old road we came to Lady Slipper Ridge. The shining pond lay outstretched and the valley in brilliant sunshine. Against the sky from time to time we glimpsed the speeding forms of swallows or some other bird.

We followed the curves and seemingly aimless wanderings of wood roads where the graceful white racemes of the foam flowers arrested our attention. The Canada Mayflower and star-flower both delicate and sweet were abundant.

Enjoying the forest perfume, we at times stood idly perhaps "framing" the picture around us.

On one road we sat upon some rocks and for the first time there was a bubble of insects; those little black flies.

Now nearing the bridge again in the heat of the afternoon, the air was filled with the scent of wet reeds, exposed mud and decayed vegetation.

Everywhere birds were taking off or landing; veering wildly.

So we returned to the cabin set among the trees overlooking the pond, just a small foothold in a big world. As I sat there I recalled the words I once read on a spoon: "The world is a book and he who stays at home reads only one page". Partly true; but wherever we are we touch the threads that run around the world. Nothing is alone.

John Betts and family were here at their cottage over the week end. Robert Holt and family, Windsor, spent Sunday with his parents.

Annie Mills, Shapleigh, visited her sister, Mrs. Clyde Morgan a few days this week.

Timmy Hakala is spending some time with his aunt, Joyce Ham, at their camp in Greenville.

Jean and Brenda Millett, Joan, Robin and Kim Morgan, Mrs. Robert Silver attended a shower for Peggy Silver at the Haywood Club on Sunday.

Susan and Sharon Kuvaja, Esther Webber and Cathy Henry have been at Reid Park for several days.

Mrs. Norman Millett and Mrs. Robert Silver were in Lewiston on Wednesday.

Ronnie Morris, Oxford, spent Thursday night with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett attended the Alumni Banquet at West Paris, Saturday evening.

Callers at Millett's this week were: Mr. and Mrs. James Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Coffin and boys, Mrs. Doris Lawrence, West Paris; Brenda and Ryan Mason, Lynda Hakala, local.

Mr. and Mrs. "Buster" Waterhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Libby, Westbrook, surprised their sister Doris Hayes, on Saturday with a supper which they brought with them. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Waterhouse.

Letters to the Editor
June 13, 1974

To the Editor:
Once again, I wish to express the appreciation of the students and personnel of the Bethel and Newry elementary schools to those countless parents and citizens who volunteered their assistance during the past school year. Such volunteers included school librarians, room mothers, field trip chaperones, classroom aides, and donors of food and materials for school parties and plays. We thank you for your generous offering of time and talents.

Sincerely,
Edward F. Flynn
Principal
Bethel and Newry Elementary Schools

To the Editor:
Now that the primaries and referendum are over, and the choices have been made by each party I wish to thank those citizens who took the time to study the candidates and issues, and to make their feelings known at the polls. Granted the results were not to everyone's liking, but the campaigns were fair, above board, and offered ample opportunity for interested voters to make their decisions.

The choices have now been narrowed, which is the function of the primary. It is imperative that throughout the next few weeks and months citizens of both parties, and independents, study the issues, the qualifications, records, and positions of the candidates whose election will have bearing on our economic and social well-being. Despite its human imperfections, the elective principle of representative government.

Sincerely,
Edward F. Flynn
Principal
Bethel and Newry Elementary Schools

Because Casco's new "Nestegg Savings" idea is both systematic and automatic, it can help you finally start building that savings nest egg you've always talked about.

Each month without fail, a fixed amount, which you decide on, is moved from your checking account to a special 90-day notice "Nestegg Savings" account. You earn 5.50% simple annual interest which, with daily compounding, yields 5.65%.

This new plan is part of Casco's unique total money management approach to personal banking. So, you enjoy the many benefits of this coordinated banking service — free checking, for example, plus the right to borrow money, should the need arise, for about half as much as many banks now charge.

NORTHWEST BETHEL

—Mrs. Louise B. Chapman, Corres.—

The big night had come. Full of anticipation I sat in the auditorium waiting for the lights to dim. For months now I'd watched Sarah prepare for this "big night." She went about it reluctantly at times, but with all the feeling and care she could give. Her costume hung in the closet, a piece of encouragement. The special record, with the special song was kept on the stereo, and played periodically for accompaniment as she did her song and dance. All the preparation could hardly have prepared me for what I saw last Saturday evening. What I saw was one very little girl in a multitude of people. But she stood out. When she came on stage, I needed no spot light to see her. As she looked out on the sea of faces, I found myself involuntarily wave, and smile encouragingly. She needed none of those, she put every ounce of herself into her dance. The feeling that grabbed at my chest, I'm sure, was shared with every mother there, even if it wasn't their first time. It definitely was one of the "joys of motherhood."

Participating in the recital from the "backside" were Kathy Chapman, Sherry Angeline, Terry, Carole, and Melinda Mason, and Sarah Chapman.

School's out, and most all of the students here are working at summer jobs.

We were up visiting Sue and John Laban and family recently. They are involved in a full time project—fixing over their new home, the former Gard Bennett house.

Mrs. "Syd" Murphy and Mike returned last week after spending a few days visiting her sister, Mrs. Rose Armstrong, in Alexandria, Va. While there they went to Washington, D. C., and took in the Smithsonian Institute. From Alexandria, they flew to Norfolk, Va., to attend the wedding of her niece, Mrs. Danny Bigio.

The Masons have nine new little piglets.

Tom and Roberta Anderson hosted a party after the Telstar graduation exercises last Thursday evening. Roberta Anderson received a Rumford Hospital award.

Mrs. Ralph Kimball, Kass and Brandon Salway spent Friday with Mrs. Herb Adams and family in Hanover. Saturday afternoon, Derek and Erin Adams stayed with their grandmother.

Mrs. John Kallis Jr., and two children, Mark and John, of Hingham, Mass., recently visited the John Kallis' a few days. John stayed for another two weeks visit. He will return home this week end.

Mrs. Christine Kimball went to Yarmouth last Thursday to bring her mother, Mrs. Iva Burgess back for a few days visit. Philip Knights came for her Sunday. On Friday they went on a shopping trip to Rumford stores.

Sunday visitors of the Kimball's were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fox, Curtis and Kevin of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Rugg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pepin and Samantha of Portland spent the week end.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank my family, and friends for the many kindnesses shown me while in the hospital. A special thanks to Dr. Young, Suzi and Dave Van Ness, also the doctors and staff at the Rumford Hospital for the excellent care I received.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Davis spent Saturday night and Sunday at Kozzy Nook this week. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bryant were callers Saturday evening as they all played 63. Mr. Hebert called Sunday morning. He was at his camp across the road from Kozzy Nook. The Hebbkins were at their camp on Sunday. The cool weather doesn't seem like camp weather. It's a good time to clean however, which has to be done each year.

Several attended graduation at Telstar from this area. One hundred fifty square dancers joined with Mr. and Mrs. Don Demarest Saturday night, June 15, at their barn for an old fashion hoe-down. Dave Stewart furnished the music and called the dances. A caterer served refreshments to those who desired them.

Judy Campbell is spending a two weeks vacation with her grandmother, Addie Campbell, at Bailey's Island. We were very pleased to receive a card from her.

Christine Twitchell was one of the honor students to graduate from Telstar High School June 13. She is planning to further her education by attending college this fall.

School finished this week for the boys and girls in this area. We hope they will be able to find something constructive and interesting to do. Busy people are the happiest and have less trouble if they do for others. "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches" you know. Industrious people achieve success.
